Hello Students:

We are 2 weeks away from finals. Make sure you are preparing for a successful finals schedule. Registration is still in progress. The goal is to enroll in a minimum of 12 units, unless you have special circumstances to go below full time standing. Week 9 is the last week for drop in advising. Appointments will be available in week 10 and Final's week. (No Drop ins). Make sure to read your weekly email for the correct appointment sign up.

Top Items:

- Learning Community Students - if you have issues with your block make sure to respond to your learning community email and follow instructions
- Graduation application for spring 2022 - go to Student Profile - apply today
- ENGR 180W - you will need to enroll in ENGL 007 SEC 013 to add course "co-requisite". Please note that ENGR 180W will satisfy the ENGL 001C and the Technical Communications major requirement.

Degree Audit

Every student should be reviewing their degree audit periodically. It is important to know where you stand in your degree completion. Once you review your degree audit and notice that there is a discrepancy, please reach out to your academic advisor as soon as possible.

There are certain Computer Science Technical Electives that may not appear in your degree audit such as CS 105, CS 110, CS 142, CS 144, CS 145, CS 147, CS 167, and CS 175. If you have taken these courses and it's not showing up under the Computer Technical Electives block, then please reach out to your academic advisor so that we can update your degree audit.

All the best,

Michael Cruz
Academic Advisor

Be sure to include your SID in all email communications.

It is expected that at least three business days are needed to reply to most email communications. If your request is more urgent please be sure to come to walk-in hours and see myself or another advisor for assistance.
